

The ripple effect

Your impaired driving or other high-risk behavior has a ripple effect on the people around you. Take a careful look at how your choices may be affecting people and things you care about. Be as open and honest as possible.

How has your impaired driving behavior affected the following?

Your family? _____

Your friends? _____

Your work/education? _____

Your community? _____

1